Dear Ms. Davis:

I have just learned that you are not well, and I wanted to offer my thoughts and let you know that you are in my prayers.

While I know that you are a strong and courageous person, I wanted to share with you scripture that has helped me when I have dealt with trials in my own life. In other words, I want to offer you my support.

I have always found comfort in reading Psalm 46: 1-3 that reads: "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging." And then, also, Psalm 18:2: "The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold." I hope that these words will comfort and encourage you in some way, as you go through this unsettling time.

I pray that you will continue to fight and know that if you grow weary, Mrs. Davis, there are others who are pulling for you and carrying you in our prayers. God bless you.

Sincerely,

Sonny Perdue
